From the Director

It is a new year, and often parents think about starting new family traditions. A family devotion time can be a great tradition. I would like to share an excerpt from our WELS quarterly magazine Parents Crosslink. The article is entitled, How Can We Teach Our Little Ones?

"How do we begin teaching our small children about Jesus? ...We might be tempted to think that we should wait until little children are older before teaching them about Jesus...By all means, let us remind them daily that Jesus loves them. We make a lasting impression on our children by presenting God's truth to them at every opportunity. Christ is for children." Pastor Joel Nitz

Discoverers (6wks-1yr)

We are already half way through January and February is right around the corner! This week we were busy working on another art project to display and we are continuing to do new things each day.

Ms. Gerri

A journey of a thousand miles, begins with one step.

Explorers (1yr-2yr)

We heard hymns for kids, at music time this week. We also were busy making an icicle craft and a bubble wrap winter tree. We enjoyed the snow dough activity as well. Our bible story was Help Me Learn about God.

Ms. Rhea

Inventors (2yr-3yr)

This week we spent time getting to know all about space! God created Earth where we live, but He also created all the other planets, the sun, the stars, and the moon! We were busy at circle time this week, learning a new song, The Sky, and learning the Days of the Week song. We did a little bit of painting and we practiced throwing “astroids” at the “moon.”

At Bible time we talked about how Jesus chose his Disciples and how the disciples told other people about God. He also wants us to tell other people about God too and how He loves us so much!

The Bible story for last week and this week will be sent home this week!

We put new items on the wish list board, if you are interested in donating! Thanks again for the ongoing donations! They are well appreciated!

Happy Birthday to Coy and Kaydence!!!

Ms. Kellie
