WELCOME TO WORSHIP

If you are a visitor to our church, we extend you a warm welcome. It's encouraging to see parents bring their families to worship the Lord. If your child is restless, you can use the Family Room to calm your child. Restrooms are located in the hallways along either side of the Worship Center. For those with special needs, large print copies of the service and listening devices are available from the ushers. One of our ushers or greeters can help you find the restrooms, family room or answer your other questions.

SERVICE NOTES FOR THIS SUNDAY

How beautiful is our journey to the cross and tomb! In these final hours before Holy Week, even as we rejoice in the great things God has done for his people throughout history, let us put the ways of the past behind us and continue to strive for that for which Christ has laid hold of us.

The liturgical color* throughout the season of Lent is purple, which communicates somberness and quietness. This is fitting given Lent's somber focus on Jesus' sufferings and death.

Today's service includes a celebration of the Sacrament of Holy Communion. For personal preparation, consider using page 156 in the front of the hymnal.

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation, he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the virgin Mary, and became fully human. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate. He suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who in unity with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. We believe in one holy Christian and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

TAKE HOME QUESTIONS

1. Like Paul's list in Philippians 3:4-6, what gains would be on your list of accomplishments that you now consider a loss for the sake of Christ?
2. Paul's line of thinking can get a little confusing, but it's important to understand. Paul normally speaks of his salvation as a done deal (Romans 8 comes to mind). Why all this talk about pressing on and straining forward, then? In other words, what is Paul aware of and making us aware of?
3. Read all of Isaiah 43. As you read, write down all the things that are unnatural or defy human reason. For example, in verse 2, "When you walk through the fire, you will not be burned." Try to come up with 5 others from the chapter. How does that help your understanding of the message from Philippians 3?
4. In the parable from Luke 20, the vineyard is given to people other than the original tenants. Assuming the original tenants are the people of Old Testament Israel, including the Jews of Jesus' day, who would the "others" who receive the vineyard be? Why was that such a shocking thing to the Israelites (v. 16)?
