Sacrificial Giving

ST. PAUL'S EV. LUTHERAN CHURCH | Wisconsin Rapids, WI

October 6, 2019

WELCOME TO WORSHIP

If you are a visitor to our church, we extend you a warm welcome. It's encouraging to see parents bring their families to worship the Lord. If your child is restless, you can use the Family Room to calm your child. Restrooms are located in the hallways along either side of the Worship Center. For those with special needs, large print copies of the service and listening devices are available from the ushers. One of our ushers or greeters can help you find the restrooms, family room or answer your other questions.

SERVICE NOTES FOR THIS SUNDAY

As we close out our 10-for-10 stewardship emphasis, we see that people will invariably give beneath their ability when they fail to put the Bible's teaching on firstfruits and proportionate giving into practice. Others give at their ability. This happens when people, confident in God's blessing, prayerfully and thoughtfully practice firstfruits and proportional giving. Finally, one can even give beyond their ability. That's the case when God's people step out in faith and give in a way that, humanly speaking, doesn't add up. Scripture tells us of people who, even in their poverty, opened up their hands and gave beyond their ability. They gave sacrificially, not superficially. How could they do this? They simply trusted in God's unlimited ability to care for them. These biblical accounts of sacrificial giving are another one of God's blessings to us. May we hear them, be inspired by them, and—as God gives us opportunity—make them our own story!

The liturgical color* for this Sunday is green, which signifies not money, but our growth in trusting God as we give back to him our firstfruits.

INVOCATION

Minister (M): In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

Congregation (C): Amen.

DIALOGUE

M: The earth is the LORD's, and everything in it, the world, and all who live in it.

C: Be exalted, O God, above the heavens; let your glory be over all the earth.

M: Christ loved us and gave himself up for us as a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God.

C: Follow God's example as dearly loved children and walk in the way of love.

M: Christ was sacrificed once to take away the sins of many; and he will appear a second time, not to bear sin, but to bring salvation to those who are waiting for him.

C: You are my God, and I will praise you; you are my God, and I will exalt you.

Psalm 24:1; Psalm 57:5; Ephesians 5:1,2; Hebrews 9:28; Psalm 118:28

CONFESSION & ABSOLUTION

M: Lord God, heavenly Father, we humbly come before you today knowing that we have failed to speak lovingly, think purely, or act rightly. We have sinned against you and against others...

...in wasting the precious time you give us.

C: ...in our slowness and hesitancy to spread your Gospel.

M: ...in the faithful care of our relationships.

C: ...in our restless and relentless preoccupation with worldly wealth.

M: ...in caring for the bodies and minds you have given us.

C: ...in our refusal to make you our first priority.

Silence for personal reflection

M: Hear our confession, for we have sinned and are in need of your mercy and forgiveness.

C: Lord of life, I confess that I am by nature dead in sin.

For faithless worrying and selfish pride,

For sins of habit and sins of choice,

For the evil I have done and the good I have failed to do,

You should cast me away from your presence forever.

O Lord, I am sorry for my sins. Forgive me for Jesus' sake.

M: Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again. In his great mercy, God made us alive in Christ even when we were dead in our sins. Hear the word of Christ through his called servant: I forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

M: In the peace of forgiveness, let us praise the Lord!

CONFESSION OF FAITH

First Article of the Apostle's Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth.

What does this mean?

I believe that God created me and all that exists, and that he gave me my body and soul, eyes, ears and all my members, my mind and all my abilities. And I believe that God still preserves me by richly and daily providing clothing and shoes, food and drink, house and home, spouse and children, land, cattle, and all I own, and all I need to keep my body and life. God also preserves me by defending me against all danger, guarding and protecting me from all evil. All this God does only because he is my good and merciful Father in heaven, and not because I have earned or deserved it. For all this I ought to thank and praise, to serve and obey him. This is most certainly true.

PRAYER OF THE CHURCH

M: Gracious God, giver of all we have and hold as stewards, grant the people of this church a deep and abiding awareness that all things come from you — our health, our incomes, our jobs, our talents and our generous impulse.

C: Send your Holy Spirit to empower us as we swim against the rising tides of materialism, envy, individualism and greed in our culture.

M: When we are tempted to think of money as a private matter, remind us that you have asked for a portion of our income to be returned to you as a symbol of our awareness that all we have has been given by you, and as a sign of our trust that you will continue to provide.

Please be seated and await the direction of the ushers.

The communicant members of our congregation will be invited to receive the Lord's Supper. Because the Bible has convinced us that Jesus' body and blood are present in the sacrament, and that receiving the sacrament together is a public statement of oneness in our beliefs and commitment, we ask our guests to speak with the pastor prior to communing. We don't want to be presumptuous and put you in the position of stating your agreement with our convictions before we've had an opportunity to explain and prove them from Scripture. The pastor would be happy to explore our convictions with you, on the basis of God's Word, so that you might commune with us in the future!

BIBLE STUDY: Sacrificial Giving

I. INTRODUCTION

A quick review of where we have been the last two weeks:

Firstfruits giving: Giving is a key _____ because I love and trust God.

Proportional giving: Stewardship includes prayerfully considering how much of God's money I need to _____.

This week we turn our attention to sacrificial giving, which is giving in a way that, to human reason, seems to be beyond one's means. It is giving beyond one's regular firstfruits, proportional giving. The cynical sinner in us would love to write off the topic of sacrificial giving as an exercise in "getting blood from a turnip." Yet, when we look at Scripture, we see that sacrificial gifts were never made out of obligation, but because there was an opportunity provided by God's providence. Ironically, Americans are accustomed to living beyond their means. The average U.S. household is carrying over $7,000 in credit card debt. Add to that an average household debt of $28,000 for cars and another $48,000 for student loans.

However, there are exactly zero divine promises that would encourage us to be comfortable living beyond our means. But what about giving in a way that seems beyond our means?

Malachi 3:10

"Bring the whole tithe into the storehouse, that there may be food in my house. Test me in this," says the Lord Almighty, "and see if I will not throw open the floodgates of heaven and pour out so much blessing that there will not be room enough to store it."

? What promise does the LORD give to the children of Israel there?

Let us look at how our generous God empowers his children to imitate his generosity through sacrificial giving.

II. GOD ENABLES PEOPLE TO DO AMAZING THINGS

Matthew 20:21

Jesus replied, "Truly I tell you, if you have faith and do not doubt, not only can you do what was done to the fig tree, but also you can say to this mountain, 'Go, throw yourself into the sea,' and it will be done.

Romans 10:17

Consequently, faith comes from hearing the message, and the message is heard through the word of Christ.

- ? In Matthew 20, Jesus teaches us that if it was God's will that a mountain would throw itself into the sea, we should have faith that mountain will obey our command. Obviously, it is not God's will that mountains jump into the sea. It is his will that his children give generous offerings. Combine that with God's promise in Romans 10:17. Together, we have heard God's message on these important stewardship topics. Therefore, of what can we be confident?

John 15:5

Jesus said, "I am the vine; you are the branches. If a man remains in me and I in him, he will bear much fruit; apart from me you can do nothing."

- ? Notice Jesus doesn't say that if we remain in him we should bear much fruit or we might bear much fruit. He says we will. How can he speak so confidently?

The Point?

God is neither _____ nor a _____. If he asks us to do things that are impossible, he then gives us the _____ to do that which he has asked.

When Jesus told Peter "Come!" he was asking Peter to do that which is impossible—walking on water. But the word of Christ gave Peter the ability to do the impossible. While Peter's faith fixed itself upon the promise, he was able to do the unthinkable. "Apart from me you can do nothing."

It is only when Peter took his eyes off Jesus and looked at his situation that he sank. We are the family of the Father who are filled with faith. When our God asks us to do something, we can trust he will give us the ability to do what he has asked. That is true when it comes to giving. One example...

Poor As Dirt, Yet Serving the Saints

2 Corinthians 8:2-4

²In the midst of a very severe trial, their overflowing joy and their extreme poverty welled up in rich generosity. ³For I testify that they gave as much as they were able, and even beyond their ability. Entirely on their own, ⁴they urgently pleaded with us for the privilege of sharing in this service to the Lord's people.

- ? Circle the best answer. For the Macedonian churches, giving was:
- like pulling teeth.
 - something that they might find some use for.
 - a privilege they pleaded for.

Circle the best answer. When it came to the amount of their gifts:

- It was just enough to keep Pastor Paul from sending a member of the Stewardship Committee to their homes.
- It was pretty respectable considering they didn't have much.
- It was shocking because God blessed them "to give even beyond their ability."

The Point?

Giving is not a _____ of the rich,
but a _____ for the poor.

When it comes to giving, the _____,
not the _____, is what counts in God's sight.

III. PULLING IT ALL TOGETHER

- _____ giving teaches that giving to God comes first, because we are to fear, love, and trust in him above all things.
- _____ giving teaches that we give to God a pre-determined percentage of our wealth. Tithing, or giving ten percent, has served as a biblical benchmark for proportionate giving.
- _____ giving teaches that we may, in joy, give over and above our regular, proportional gifts.

Questions to Prayerfully Consider This Week

- As I produce my ten-week giving plan, how will I demonstrate that God comes first? What is the Spirit empowering me to produce in the way of firstfruits giving?
- What is the proportion of my income the Spirit will enable me to return to God over the next ten weeks? How much of God's blessings do I need to keep for myself to live and have a satisfying life? How much does he allow me to give back?
- How will Christ's sacrifice and his promises enable me to be sacrificial in my giving?

IV. NEWS AND NOTES

- If you did not bring your commitment cards today, you can bring it anytime and drop it in the offering plate.
- One last reminder: Your commitment cards will not be opened. They will be placed near the altar for ten weeks and then returned to you unopened for your prayerful reflection.
- Please do not place offerings in your 10 for 10 commitment envelopes. The only thing that goes in that envelope is your giving plan.
- Additional devotional material has been/will be shared. Read. Ponder. Pray.
- Throughout the ten weeks of 10 for 10, we will receive additional encouragements from God's Word. Why? "If a man remains in me and I in him, he will bear much fruit."

Please stand.
