

Winner – Macy Vollert

A Love Without End

When the world seems too terrible to understand, we look to you, God, and remember what you have planned.

True, we don't know when you will return,
but for you we will no longer need to yearn.

Oh, God, your love is as pure as freshly fallen snow.

In your love and hope, I pray I can grow.

Lord, I wish that I could comprehend your gracious, amazing, love forever without an end.

Winner – Xaris Sellnow

A Savior

In the manger, in the hay, there Jesus Christ lay.

As a child, humble and small,
Jesus came to save us all.

While shepherds watched their sheep nearby,
the angels sang up in the sky.

Tell shepherds to go praise the Lord,
who was born on this day.

For Christ came from up high,
for he came here to die.